

GREEK INTERVARSITY

Reaching Fraternity and Sorority students with the Gospel of Jesus Christ

Goings On. . .

Serve God, Serve Others SERVING TOGETHER

In early February I took a group of USD Greek students (see picture above) on a service trip hosted by our church, Solana Beach Presbyterian. We spent the day with members of the community painting at the San Diego Rescue Mission.

"Real Sex"

BOOK DISCUSSION

Sex and dating are two topics that frequently come up with students. Currently I'm going through a book called "Real Sex: The naked truth about chastity" with a group of 5 women. It's been awesome to see these students' openness to what God has to say about how we behave in relationships and how we treat our bodies. College students are often undecided on how they feel about these topics, so this is the perfect time to discuss what God has to say and how it applies to their lives.

Fraternity Bible Study

Steven started leading a Bible Study in his Fraternity, SigEp, in February. He was been faithful to show up every Tuesday night, but no guys were coming. This was not surprising to me, as we haven't had a successful Fraternity Bible Study yet. Last week he took a step of faith and changed the night to Wednesday. Steven was overjoyed when three of his Fraternity brothers showed up!

They spent time sharing their faith backgrounds, and almost ran out of time because the guys were so open and willing to share. Brad shared: "I grew up going to church, but since coming to college, I haven't been interested in God or church. But when I saw this group, just for SigEps, I thought I'd give it a chance." The men are excited to be part of this community, to share openly about their lives, and to get to know their SigEp brothers on a deeper level. Praise God for His faithfulness!

Reaching Out. . .

Pancake Dinner

On Wednesday, May 13th we're hosting a "Pancake Happy Hour." Inviting members from each Fraternity and Sorority, the students hope to see many of their friends come and enjoy a break from studying for Finals, which start that week. Their hope is that Greeks will come and meet students involved in Greek InterVarsity and be impacted by the way they live out their faith in the Greek system.

Leading Greek Connection with USD Greeks

The students would love for this event to be Free for attendees! Please pray with us for God's provision.
